

Department of English

CLUB ACTIVITY- I

JAM - Just a Minute

Clue and Catch - Literary Quiz

The Department of English conducted the Club Activity on 29.07.2024 at English Language Lab to enhance the literary skills of the students. The welcome address was given by MS. S. Roshini, I BA English. The faculty members and office bearers helped the freshers to drive out the fear from their minds to participate in JAM (Just a Minute talk) & Literary Quiz. The activities helped the students to understand the literature through Literary Quiz and Speech. The winner of JAM (Just a Minute talk) was Akshaya Shree of I B.A English and the winner of Clue and Catch (Literary Quiz) was Suganthi & team. The competitions were conducted successfully as planned. Finally the session was ended by Vote of Thanks proposed by Ms.C.Anshiya Fathima, I BA English. The creative activities made the students enthusiastic and passionate in English language and Literature.

GUEST LECTURE RECENT TRENDS OF USING AI TOOLS IN POST HUMANISTIC APPROACHES TO LITERATURE

The Department of English organized a guest lecture program on Recent trends of using AI Tools in Post Humanistic approaches to Literature on 12.09.2024. Dr. V. Shanmugaraju, Principal, Dr. B.T.Sureshkumar, Director IQAC felicitated the gathering. Mr. V.Mohanbharathi, Assistant Professor of English introduced the chief guest. Dr. S.Snekha Sri, Assistant Professor of English, Periyar University, Salem acted as a resource person and delivered a lecture on the topic. The session was very effective with icebreakers and evocative lecture. She talked about the importance and use of AI tools in literature and scope of literary theories in research. The lecture was really thought provoking and useful. She explained the post humanistic approaches very live with examples. The students learned new notions and perspectives of literature. Her speech and power point presentation created a great impact in the young minds. The students acquired more knowledge about AI tools and its uses in literature. The lecture made the students to feel the livelihood in literature. The resource person construes all the ambiguity of our students.

INDUSTRIAL VISIT TO OMNI BOOKS LIBRARY & GASS MUSEUM, COIMBATORE

OMNI BOOKS LIBRARY

GASS MUSEUM

The Department of English organized a One-day Industrial visit on 19.09.2024. We aspired to make the trip more purposeful, the students were taken to Omni books library & Gass museum, Coimbatore. This trip was arranged for all the students of UG & PG in English. Four staff members from the department accompanied the students. All the propulsion for the trip was done by the faculty members of English. The bus departed at 4:00 a.m. towards Coimbatore and they reached Marudhamalai Temple at 8:30 a.m. The students enjoyed stunning views of the surrounding hill range and immerse themselves in the peaceful atmosphere. The students visited Omnibooks library at 10.30 a.m. They were induced and gazed various types and genres of books. Next, they visit the Gass Museum where the pleasant and calm atmosphere of the place induced the students to rejuvenate their passion of social history. The guide of the museum explained the enigmatic nature of birds, animals and the history of the wild animals and able to respond rapidly to stimuli. The students eagerly queried to know more about the different names of the birds and insects. Ultimately, the bus started from the place at 3:15 p.m. On the way back to the college, they visited Isha temple and experienced ecclesiastical divinity. The bus arrived the campus at 11:30 p.m.